So Much to Do, So Little Time

Life moves fast. These days it seems like everyone is asked to do more in less time and with less help. With all you have to do, it can be hard to focus on everyday matters, let alone issues that are harder to control, such as:

- Changes in your financial situation
- Family or relationship problems
- Overwork or conflicts at work
- Feeling depressed or anxious
- Quitting tobacco, alcohol or drug use
- Caring for children or aging parents
- Losing weight and living healthier

Challenges like these can make life hard. When you're busy, you might not think there's time to find solutions. So, it's important to know that your organization offers a program that can help you solve everyday—and not so everyday—problems confidentially, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

There's no cost to you and your eligible household members to use this program; however, any costs or copayments beyond this program will be your responsibility.
